Dear Mr. Casey:

On behalf of the Harriet Elliott Lecture Committee of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, I am currently making inquiries regarding the availability of possible speakers for the spring of 1984. It is the purpose of the Elliott Lecture Committee to arrange for speakers in the social sciences to come to the campus for a day.

A typical schedule would involve a press conference, small luncheon, discussion session with students, an evening lecture around 8:00 PM and an open reception. Accommodations and expenses will be covered by the university. The dates that we currently have available are February 1, 3, and 6, and April 20, 25, and 26.

A prompt response would be appreciated, so that we can make the necessary arrangements. Thank you for your attention.

Sincerely,

Harriet Elliott Lecture
Committee
